FEATURED HALF BOTTLE OF SAINT-AUBIN 1er CRU

Hubert Lamy, "Les Friottes", 2015 - $88

One would be hard pressed to find a better white wine maker in all of Burgundy than Olivier Lamy. Most of his holdings are located in the so-called "secondary" appellation of St. Aubin, with only a few wines outside of the appellation. What Olivier is able to accomplish in Saint-Aubin makes you wonder what he could do with prime spots in Meursault, Corton-Charlemagne, the Montrachets or even Chablis. Olivier is intense, and his wines are the same.

FEATURED CHAMPAGNE

Pierre Péters, "Cuvée de Réserve", NV - $152

Camille Péters, around 1919, was one of the first growers of the Champagne region to decide to bottle wine under his own name. In 1932, at the ripe old age of 12, Pierre Péters, the eldest son of Camille, began to attend his first exhibitions alone and develop sales for his father's brand, and never looked back. He took over operations in 1944, and released his first vintage in 1946 under the "Pierre Péters" brand. The estate, now run by Rodolphe Péters, owns just over 19 hectares of sustainably farmed vineyards , all of which are primarily located in the Côte des Blancs, where the soils are chalky and Chardonnay is king. Their flagship Champagne, the "Cuvée de Réserve", is a Blanc de Blancs style made from 100% Grand Cru Chardonnay grapes.

FEATURED NAPA CHARDONNAY

Hudson, Carneros, 2014 - $124

Lee Hudson runs a farm, not a winery with a herd of goats, or a vineyard with some chickens. Hudson Ranch is balanced with a multitude of flora and fauna that provide incomparable health to the the vines. The incredible fruit is so sought after that literally the finest Californian wines often mention their source: Hudson Vineyard. These grapes are the key to the creation of a classically-styled, California Chardonnay that is as robust as it is complex.

FEATURED POUILLY-FUMÉ

D. Dagueneau, "Buisson Renard", 2014 - $181

Farming individual vineyards in his hometown of Saint-Andelain outside Sancerre, the wines of Didier Dagueneau forever changed the potential of Sauvignon Blanc. Practicing healthy, natural farming while never accepting mediocre produce, Dagueneau became the universal benchmark for the varietal. And it is a rockstar wine.

FEATURED RIESLING SPÄTLESE

Max Ferd. Richter, "Graacher Dompropst", 2003 - $79

The estate of Max Ferd. Richter has been passed down from father to son for the past 300 years. The current reins are held by Dr. Dirk Richter, the 9th generation. Richter produces world-class Rieslings from some of the most esteemed vineyards in the Mosel. The same attention is paid to all vines, from the QBAs on up through the Eisweins. Their grapes are harvested much later than that of most growers and is done entirely by hand. Three passes are done to select the best qualities to eliminate all inferior grapes and to keep perfect botrytis bunches. Contrary to popular belief, Riesling develops beautifully with age. Its residual sugar and acidity help to preserve the wine while all of the wonderful flavors come together over time. This 2003 bottling from the Dompropst vineyard, near the town of Graach, is just starting to hit its stride right now.

FEATURED PINOT NOIR

Soliste, "Narcisse", Sonoma Coast, 2014 - $98

Burgundy born and raised, Claude Koeberle is considered one of the world's foremost experts of Pinot Noir, and his wines never cease to amaze.

"Soliste" comes from the name that winemakers in Burgundy use for a special barrel reserved solely for family and friends. Most of their wines are made in what they call the "MonoClone" style, using single clones from single sites and aged individually in a single cooperage. The "Narcisse" is a blend of these "MonoClones" that is given an additional 8 months of aging for the cherry/berry fruits and the earthy/minerally terroir to homogenize into a pure expression of Sonoma County Pinot Noir.

FEATURED SYRAH

Pax, "The Hermit", North Coast, 2014 - $98

Pax is back! Pax Mahle started his eponymous brand in 2000 after years of working in the wine business. He created rich, full-bodied Syrahs from some of the best sites around California. In 2008, a rift in the partnership behind Pax Wine Cellars caused him to have to dissolve the brand for a short while, focusing his efforts on his new label, Wind Gap. The label change also brought a stylistic change in the wines to a more lean, restrained style. He re-launched the Pax brand in 2014, again showcasing Syrah from many of the best vineyard sites in northern California. "The Hermit" is made from 100% Syrah, with grapes sourced from all 5 of their Syrah vineyards.

FEATURED CABERNET FRANC

Blackbird Vineyards, "Paramour",
Napa Valley, 2013 - $138

On the Right Bank of Bordeaux, in the regions of Pomerol and Saint-Émilion, you will find some of the most famous and sought after wines on the planet. It is from here that Blackbird Vineyards draws the inspiration for their wines. Utilizing primarily the Cabernet Franc and Merlot (which actually translates to "young blackbird" in French patois) grapes, they are able to craft stellar wines in Napa Valley, displaying the power and elegance expressed in their counterparts across the pond.

Château Marquis de Terme, 2005 - $169

A Grand Cru Classé wine from an exceptional vintage lends itself to incredible aging potential.

These bottles have been resting for 12 years in the underbelly of the winery, their only other home before making their way to our cellar. A delicate, yet powerful, balance of bright ripe fruit and rustic terroir, this wine's pedigree is shining through beautifully.

FEATURED MARSANNAY

Philippe Charlopin, "Les Echezots", 2011 - $98

If ever there was a fickle wine, Burgundy comes first to mind. Disappointment and frustration accompany the thrill of enjoying ethereal wines. Philippe Charlopin, is the son of a vigneron, as well as a student and friend of the late Henri Jayer. This friendship helped shape Philippe's winemaking philosophy. "Les Echezots" is from a small 3 hectare parcel of 30-50 year old vines in Marsannay. This wine shows wonderful supple fruit, and yet beautifully expresses the earthy terroir of Burgundy.

FEATURED PRODUCER

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti

No winery is more famous, or produces such legen...wait for it...dary wines in Burgundy than Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. The domaine has been co-owned by 2 families, the de Villaine's and the Roch's/Leroy's, since 1942. Aubert de Villaine, a humble, charming and highly intelligent man who is acutely conscious of the history of the domaine and the responsibility he bears towards it, has been the manager and face of the domaine since 1991, when Lalou Bize-Leroy left to focus on her own domaine. Often abbreviated as DRC, the winery makes some of the most exclusive wines in the world. 98% of their vineyard holdings are in Grand Cru vineyards, including their 2 "monopoles", La Tâche and Romanée-Conti. DRC's wines, for those lucky enough to have tried them, are regarded as the pinnacle of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

FEATURED CÔTE-RÔTIE

Jean-Paul & Jean-Luc Jamet, 2012 - $312

In Côte-Rôtie, red wines are centered around the workhorse grape of the Northern Rhône: Syrah.

These Syrah-based wines are able to capture not only power, but elegance as well. They are able to flex their muscular guns, while still being able to talk about their feelings. With flavors including fresh red and black berries, smoke, bacon fat and olive brine, these are some of the most exciting and complex wines on the planet.

FEATURED CROZES-HERMITAGE

Maison Nicolas Perrin, 2013 - $72

This is a marriage of two titans of the Rhône: Nicolas Jaboulet and the Perrin family of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Using Syrah in soils and exposures more similar to Hermitage than its sister appellation the wine showcases a modern interpretation of the often over looked Crozes-Hermitage.

Jean-Louis Chave

If there were a name that was synonymous with the hill of Hermitage, it would be that of Jean-Louis Chave. The family began making Hermitage in 1481, passing down wisdom through the generations to create some of the most perfectly balanced wines available. Traditionalists to the core, the key to the perfect balance of his wines is the remarkable blending skill. This creates wines of great nuance, harmony, depth and aging potential.

FEATURED CÔTES DU VENTOUX

Saint Jean du Barroux, "L' Argile", 2013 - $76

The Rhône produces hedonistic wines, of which the aromatics can only be described using offensive language. The wines here are based around the traditional Southern Rhône grapes, Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre and Cinsault to produce wines of character, complexity, and funk. Philippe Gimel, who trained at places like Domaine de la Janasse and Château de Beaucastel, creates wines at Saint Jean du Barroux which embody just that. Each wine is a unique expression of the vineyards' diverse terroir, meticulously farmed and vinified under the strictest of conditions.

FEATURED BARBARESCO

Cantina del Glicine, "Vignespase", 2013 - $98

In the eastern slopes of Barbaresco sits the small commune of Neive, home of Cantina del Glicine, one of the region's most historic cellars dating back to 1582. Glicine is a true boutique winery, started in 1980 by Adriana Marzi and Roberto Bruno, where the focus is on low yields and small vineyard sites. The resulting wines are powerfully structured and concentrated with an emphasis on elegant textures and expressive aromatics.

FEATURED BAROLO RISERVA

Elio Sandri, "Perno", 2010 - $151

It is here in Barolo that you will find one of the most heated debates in wine production, "Traditionalist or Modernist?". Many producers have altered the way they produce Barolo, utilizing more new oak, and adapting to changes in technology to create softer, more approachable wines in their youth. Not Elio Sandri, he is traditionalist to the core. His vineyards are farmed organically, the wines are made with natural yeast with minimal to no sulphur addition, and aged for up to seven years in large botti and bottle. The problem is he only makes a couple hundred cases of Barolo per year, for the WHOLE WORLD. So before you know it...POOF...it's gone

Castello Romitorio, 2009 - $134

Brunello di Montalcino has risen to be the premier interpretation of Tuscan Sangiovese. Full in body, this wine expresses all of the traditional flavors one expects from the varietal, such as pure cherry fruit, chocolate notes, and a dark earthiness. The resulting wine is a more pronounced, luxurious bottling that only the town of Montalcino can provide.

FEATURED "SUPER TUSCAN"

Guado al Melo, "Atis",
Bolgheri Superiore, 2013 - $156

The Super Tuscan movement was founded on a renaissance spirit of a few dedicated vintners marked both by their artistry and perseverance in the face of early opposing "purists". The introduction of French grapes expanded these winemakers' ability to create more diverse flavors from Tuscan soils. Guado al Melo, one of the leading modernists in Tuscan winemaking, makes this boutique blend based entirely on Bordeaux varieties, omitting Tuscany's beloved Sangiovese. This creates a wine of deeper concentration and body while maintaining it's energy and rustic charm.

FEATURED VENETO RED

Valpolicella Classico Superiore Ripasso,
Buglioni, "Il Bugiardo", 2013 - $66

"If this is not Amarone, then it is a lying wine!"

This was the exclamation of an experienced sommelier when he tasted Buglioni's first Ripasso wine in 2000. This incident gave birth to the name of this wine, "Il Bugiardo", which translates to "The Liar". This Ripasso process involves blending wine from partially dried grapes, and freshly vinified wine that has been "re-passed" over the leftovers from the production of Amarone. It creates a wine that is reminiscent of Amarone, but with a little more drinkability.

FEATURED RIBERA DEL DUERO

Conde de San Cristóbal, 2014- $73

Watch out Rioja, Ribera del Duero has been creeping up as one of Spain's premier red wine producing regions. Here, producers are crafting wines from the local Tinto Fino (Tempranillo), as well as small amounts of French varietals. Conde de San Cristóbal is the "sister bodega" of Marqués de Vargas in Rioja. They practice sustainable farming (no herbicides/pesticides), allow for indigenous yeast fermentation and the wines are bottled with no fining or filtering, resulting in an unprocessed and fully natural wine. These wines are able to combine power and concentration of fruit with the elegance and terroir of an Old World wine.

FEATURED AUSTRALIAN SHIRAZ

Two Hands, "Angels' Share", McLaren Vale
2014 - $88

Every dog has its day, and at a steakhouse Shiraz shines. These big juicy wines add complexity and juiciness to any steak. Two Hands impeccably crafts full-bodied Shiraz with less sweetness than its neighbors. "Angels' Share" hails from the McLaren Vale, whose cool nights add layers of freshness to the wine.

FEATURED TOKAJI ASZÚ

Château Pajzos, "5 Puttonyos", 2006 - $98

Tokaji: A dessert wine so nuanced and impressive that Catherine the Great set up a garrison in the town of Tokaj to protect its delivery. Emperor Franz Josef sent Queen Victoria bottles religiously for her birthday. Louis XV referred to it as the "Wine of Kings". Beethoven, Peter the Great, and Thomas Jefferson preferred it to all other sweet wines. Don't you want to join this company of characters?

FEATURED FANCY BEER

Pipeworks, "Mango Guppy", 16oz - $11

After meeting each other while working at West Lakeview Liquors, Gerrit Lewis and Beejay Olson decided it was time to open a brewery of their own. After an inspirational trip to Belgium and a successful Kickstarter, Pipeworks Brewing Co. was born. The brewery opened in late January 2012 and began brewing extremely unique, small batch beers. They quickly gained a cult following in Chicago that first year. So much so that in January 2013, RateBeer named them "Best New Brewery in the World", and they haven't looked back since.

FEATURED BARBARESCO MAGNUM

Gaja, 1982 - $1,982

Angelo Gaja is the man credited for bringing the small commune of Barbaresco out of obscurity. His influence has changed the way the world views Italian wine to this day. A master of Nebbiolo--the austere, tannic grape once considered only quaffable after decades of bottle age, Angelo saw its potential as a world class wine. Despite pushback from his peers, he employed new (and what most considered outlandish) practices both in the vineyard and the winery to promote freshness and elegance in his wine. The story of Gaja is a truly fascinating one, but is best told through a glass of his stunning Barbaresco...(hint, hint)
