FEATURED HALF BOTTLE OF PULIGNY-MONTRACHET

Hubert Lamy, "Les Tremblots", 2013 - $82

*A classic mineral dominated Chardonnay from Burgundy's premiere village: Puligny-Montrachet.
The vineyard of "Les Tremblots" is relatively obscure, though it sits just one vineyard east of the remarkable Grand Crus of the region.*

FEATURED CHAMPAGNE

Pierre Péters, "Cuvée de Réserve", NV - $152

Camille Péters, around 1919, was one of the first growers of the Champagne region to decide to bottle wine under his own name. In 1932, at the ripe old age of 12, Pierre Péters, the eldest son of Camille, began to attend his first exhibitions alone and develop sales for his father's brand, and never looked back. He took over operations in 1944, and released his first vintage in 1946 under the "Pierre Péters" brand. The estate, now run by Rodolphe Péters, owns just over 19 hectares of sustainably farmed vineyards , all of which are primarily located in the Côte des Blancs, where the soils are chalky and Chardonnay is king. Their flagship Champagne, the "Cuvée de Réserve", is a Blanc de Blancs style made from 100% Grand Cru Chardonnay grapes.

FEATURED NAPA CHARDONNAY

Shafer, "Red Shoulder Ranch", Los Carneros,
2015 - $108

In 1988, Doug and John Shafer purchased a new property in the cooler Los Carneros region of Napa Valley to grow their Chardonnay grapes. The vineyard is sustainably farmed, and its name "Red Shoulder Ranch" has a much deeper meaning than just a name. The name pays homage to the local Red-shouldered hawks that are key to these sustainable farming practices. Tall perches were erected for the hawks throughout the property, and the hawks rewarded the Shafers for this by keeping the population of vine-damaging gophers naturally under control. This allows for no rodent poisons to be used throughout the vineyard, keeping the vines and the soils healthy. Healthy vines=Healthy grapes, and these grapes are the key to the creation of a classically-styled, California Chardonnay

FEATURED POUILLY-FUMÉ

D. Dagueneau, "Buisson Renard", 2013 - $181

Farming individual vineyards in his hometown of Saint-Andelain outside Sancerre, the wines of Didier Dagueneau forever changed the potential of Sauvignon Blanc. Practicing healthy, natural farming while never accepting mediocre produce, Dagueneau became the universal benchmark for the varietal. We chose this fumé blanc because of the extremely low yielding vines, speaking to the outstanding quality of the fruit. And because it is a rockstar wine.

Russian River Valley, 2013 - $122

*"My name is August West, and I love my Pearly
Baker best more than my wine.*

More than my wine - more than my maker, though he's no friend of mine.

Everyone said, I'd come to no good, I knew I would Pearly, believe them.

*Half of my life, I spent doin' time for some other
fker's crime,*

The other half found me stumbling 'round drunk on Burgundy wine."

FEATURED SYRAH

Pax, "The Hermit", North Coast, 2014 - $98

Pax is back! Pax Mahle started his eponymous brand in 2000 after years of working in the wine business. He created rich, full-bodied Syrahs from some of the best sites around California. In 2008, a rift in the partnership behind Pax Wine Cellars caused him to have to dissolve the brand for a short while, focusing his efforts on his new label, Wind Gap. The label change also brought a stylistic change in the wines to a more lean, restrained style. He re-launched the Pax brand in 2014, again showcasing Syrah from many of the best vineyard sites in northern California. "The Hermit" is made from 100% Syrah, with grapes sourced from all 5 of their Syrah vineyards.

FEATURED ZINFANDEL

Turley, "Old Vines", California, 2014 - $83

There are no other grape varieties in the world that can be considered more American than Zinfandel.

If there is a name that is synonymous with the Zinfandel grape, it would be Turley Wine Cellars.

Founded in 1993 by Dr. Larry Turley, the brother of California winemaking superstar Helen Turley, the Turley brand's focus has always been around Zinfandel. The "Old Vines" cuvée is a blend of 18 vineyard sites all over California that are either too small to be made into their own wines or are new to the Turley family. The vines range from 41 to 129 years old. This vine age, in combination with Turley's plush, rich style helped establish Zinfandel as a world-class wine.

FEATURED SAINT-JULIEN

Sarget de Gruaud-Larose, 1999 - $118

An often underrated vintage in Bordeaux, hiding in the shadows of the great 2000 vintage, 1999 has produced a collection of wines that are showing beautifully right now. The wines have aged gracefully and are currently offering up a more accessible drinking experience than their more powerful and concentrated, younger brethren. Sarget de Gruaud-Larose, the second label of the renowned 2nd Growth Château Gruaud-Larose, showcases all of the classic flavors of a mature St.-Julien, black & red fruits, with notes of cedar, forest floor, and tobacco.

FEATURED MARSANNAY

Philippe Charlopin, "Les Echezots", 2011 - $98

If ever there was a fickle wine, Burgundy comes first to mind. Disappointment and frustration accompany the thrill of enjoying ethereal wines. Philippe Charlopin, is the son of a vigneron, as well as a student and friend of the late Henri Jayer. This friendship helped shape Philippe's winemaking philosophy. "Les Echezots" is from a small 3 hectare parcel of 30-50 year old vines in Marsannay. This wine shows wonderful supple fruit, and yet beautifully expresses the earthy terroir of Burgundy.

FEATURED PRODUCER

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti

No winery is more famous, or produces such legen...wait for it...dary wines in Burgundy than Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. The domaine has been co-owned by 2 families, the de Villaine's and the Roch's/Leroy's, since 1942. Aubert de Villaine, a humble, charming and highly intelligent man who is acutely conscious of the history of the domaine and the responsibility he bears towards it, has been the manager and face of the domaine since 1991, when Lalou Bize-Leroy left to focus on her own domaine. Often abbreviated as DRC, the winery makes some of the most exclusive wines in the world. 98% of their vineyard holdings are in Grand Cru vineyards, including their 2 "monopoles", La Tâche and Romanée-Conti. DRC's wines, for those lucky enough to have tried them, are regarded as the pinnacle of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

FEATURED CÔTE-RÔTIE

Domaine Faury, 2013 - $144

In Côte-Rôtie, red wines are centered around the workhorse grape of the Northern Rhône: Syrah.

These Syrah-based wines are able to capture not only power, but elegance as well. They are able to flex their muscular guns, while still being able to talk about their feelings. With flavors including fresh red and black berries, smoke, bacon fat and olive brine, these are some of the most exciting and complex wines on the planet.

FEATURED CROZES-HERMITAGE

Maison Nicolas Perrin, 2013 - $72

This is a marriage of two titans of the Rhône: Nicolas Jaboulet and the Perrin family of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Using Syrah in soils and exposures more similar to Hermitage than its sister appellation the wine showcases a modern interpretation of the often over looked Crozes-Hermitage.

FEATURED PRODUCER

Jean-Louis Chave

If there were a name that was synonymous with the hill of Hermitage, it would be that of Jean-Louis Chave. The family began making Hermitage in 1481, passing down wisdom through the generations to create some of the most perfectly balanced wines available. Traditionalists to the core, the key to the perfect balance of his wines is the remarkable blending skill. This creates wines of great nuance, harmony, depth and aging potential.

FEATURED CÔTES DU VENTOUX

Saint Jean du Barroux, "L' Argile", 2013 - $76

The Rhône produces hedonistic wines, of which the aromatics can only be described using offensive language. The wines here are based around the traditional Southern Rhône grapes, Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre and Cinsault to produce wines of character, complexity, and funk. Philippe Gimel, who trained at places like Domaine de la Janasse and Château de Beaucastel, creates wines at Saint Jean du Barroux which embody just that. Each wine is a unique expression of the vineyards' diverse terroir, meticulously farmed and vinified under the strictest of conditions.

FEATURED BARBARESCO

Cantina Pertinace, "Nervo", 1997 -$198

Cantina Pertinace is a wingrowers' cooperative that truly identifies with its territory, the region of Barbaresco. It was founded in 1973 and began with 13 members, founder Mario Barbero and 12 other farmers, all from the region of Treiso. The group shared a passion for producing the best wines from their own vineyards. They began bottling their wine in the late 1970's and have jointly made improvements over the years to the vinification and aging facilities to keep up with the level of prestige and quality of the wines of Barbaresco.

FEATURED BAROLO

Azelia (Luigi Scavino), 2012 -$107

This historic winery run by the lauded Scavino family combines both power and elegance through maniacal attention to detail in the vineyards. The vines used for this wine are an average age of 40 years and produce very low yields -- which in the economy of viticulture, less is more! Greater concentration, ripeness, and aromatic complexity create the ideal experience in the glass; or if you prefer, a party in the mouth.

FEATURED TUSCAN RED

Chianti Classico Riserva, Fèlsina, "Berardenga",
2011 - $89

Too often Classico gets associated with the wicker baskets of cheap Chianti, or under appreciated against the grandness of Brunello. Classico, located in the heart of Tuscany has been regarded as Sangiovese's ideal home for centuries. The wines produced there are nuanced, dynamic, and worthy of decades of cellaring. The misassociation amongst Chianti has lead Classico to be a truly incredible value. Ours happens to be a Riserva, from a classic producer, from vineyards in one of the most sought after areas in the Classico region.

FEATURED "SUPER TUSCAN"

Guado al Melo, "Atis", 2011 - $156

The Super Tuscan movement was founded on a renaissance spirit of a few dedicated vintners marked both by their artistry and perseverance in the face of early opposing "purists". The introduction of French grapes expanded these winemakers' ability to create more diverse flavors from Tuscan soils. Guado al Melo, one of the leading modernists in Tuscan winemaking, makes this boutique blend based entirely on Bordeaux varieties, omitting Tuscany's beloved Sangiovese. This creates a wine of deeper concentration and body while maintaining it's energy and rustic charm.

FEATURED VENETO RED

Valpolicella Classico Superiore Ripasso,
Buglioni, "Il Bugiardo", 2012 - $66

"If this is not Amarone, then it is a lying wine!"

This was the exclamation of an experienced sommelier when he tasted Buglioni's first Ripasso wine in 2000. This incident gave birth to the name of this wine, "Il Bugiardo", which translates to "The Liar". This Ripasso process involves blending wine from partially dried grapes, and freshly vinified wine that has been "re-passed" over the leftovers from the production of Amarone. It creates a wine that is reminiscent of Amarone, but with a little more drinkability.

FEATURED RIBERA DEL DUERO

Conde de San Cristóbal, 2011- $73

Watch out Rioja, Ribera del Duero has been creeping up as one of Spain's premier red wine producing regions. Here, producers are crafting wines from the local Tinto Fino (Tempranillo), as well as small amounts of French varietals. Conde de San Cristóbal is the "sister bodega" of Marqués de Vargas in Rioja. They practice sustainable farming (no herbicides/pesticides), allow for indigenous yeast fermentation and the wines are bottled with no fining or filtering, resulting in an unprocessed and fully natural wine. These wines are able to combine power and concentration of fruit with the elegance and terroir of an Old World wine.

FEATURED AUSTRALIAN SHIRAZ

Two Hands, "Gnarly Dudes", 2014 - $88

Every dog has its day, and at a steakhouse Shiraz shines. These big jammy wines add complexity and juiciness to any steak. Two Hands impeccably crafts full-bodied Shiraz with less sweetness than its neighbors. "Gnarly Dudes" refers to the ancient gnarled vines that create the intense grapes needed to produce this wine in the Barossa Valley.

FEATURED TOKAJI ASZÚ

Château Pajzos, "5 Puttonyos", 2006 - $98

Tokaji: A dessert wine so nuanced and impressive that Catherine the Great set up a garrison in the town of Tokaj to protect its delivery. Emperor Franz Josef sent Queen Victoria bottles religiously for her birthday. Louis XV referred to it as the "Wine of Kings". Beethoven, Peter the Great, and Thomas Jefferson preferred it to all other sweet wines. Don't you want to join this company of characters?

FEATURED FANCY BEER

B.O.M., "Full Moon 12", 2016 (12oz) - $15

Bert Van Hecke was the brewmaster at St.

Bernardus, and he helped them develop the famous recipe for their Abt 12. Did you know that for a period of time the Westvleteren 12 was being brewed at St. Bernardus? Can you guess who was helping to brew that beer?

Indeed, it was Bert Van Hecke, the now infamous brewmaster at BOM (Belgian Original Malt Bakery & Brewery). This beer is Bert's recreation of the classic Westy 12 recipe with Bert's signature hand roasted malts and home toasted oak chips. This beer is in very limited supply, so grab one while you still can!!!

FEATURED BARBARESCO MAGNUM

Gaja, 1982 - $1,982

Angelo Gaja is the man credited for bringing the small commune of Barbaresco out of obscurity. His influence has changed the way the world views Italian wine to this day. A master of Nebbiolo--the austere, tannic grape once considered only quaffable after decades of bottle age, Angelo saw its potential as a world class wine. Despite pushback from his peers, he employed new (and what most considered outlandish) practices both in the vineyard and the winery to promote freshness and elegance in his wine. The story of Gaja is a truly fascinating one, but is best told through a glass of his stunning Barbaresco...(hint, hint)
