FEATURED HALF BOTTLE OF CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Pride, North Coast, 2015 - $99

Summit Ranch has a history rich in the texture of 19th Century winemaking. The first records of vineyard plantings date back to 1869. Built in 1890, the gravity-fed winery served the entire mountain, although sometime during Prohibition, it was destroyed by a fire. Now all that is left are the ruins of the original stone walls. Founded in 1990 by Jim and Carolyn Pride, Pride Mountain Vineyards sits high up on Spring Mountain. Riding the crest of the Mayacamas Mountain Range at an elevation of 2,100 feet, the 235 acre property is bisected by the Napa/Sonoma county line. While in 1890 one winery served the entire mountain community, in 1990 government regulations required that Pride Mountain Vineyards have two separate facilities, one in Napa County and one in Sonoma County, with the division down the center of the crush pad. Wines produced here now are designated Napa Valley, Sonoma County or with percentages of both on the label, supporting the tag line, "One Ranch ~ Two Counties."

FEATURED CHAMPAGNE

Jean-Pierre Launois, "Monochrome", NV - $148

Champagne Jean-Pierre Launois is today a winery that retains traditional values while evolving with the times. Jean-Pierre Launois, with his son Julien, carry on the family tradition as stewards of the family vineyard, located in the Grand Cru village of Le Mesnil-sur-Oger in the heart of the Côte des Blancs. In a great turning point of the family story, Julien and Sarah Launois have decided to become producers as well as growers. Their handmade cuveés are as delightful as they are rare. This Blanc de Blancs cuvée "Monochrome" is the first that was entirely completed at their new winery, giving it their first "R.M." designation. The grapes for this wine come from their vineyard, on the elevated slopes overlooking "Clos du Mesnil". They believe that Champagne is a product of luxury and quality, but also a vector of contacts and openness to the world. Anxious to keep this spirit, they will welcome you to the property to share with you their love of incredible wine.

DuMOL, "Isobel", Sonoma Coast, 2016 - $99

If you are looking for great California Chardonnay, then look no further than the Charles Heintz Vineyard. The Heintz family has farmed the same coastal ridgeline in western Sonoma County for 100 years, and Charles is the 3rd generation farmer of Heintz Ranch. DuMOL has been sourcing grapes from these old vines for 17 years, and their "Isobel" is a perfect expression of this site. New World power combined with cool, coastal terroir???. Sounds like a recipe for success.

FEATURED SANCERRE

Domaine Vacheron, "Les Romains", 2017 - $143

The Vacheron family name in Sancerre is viticultural royalty. Three generations ago the family took over their first vineyards. As their family grew so did the pedigree of their bottlings. Now encompassing biodynamic farming, hand harvests, and some of the finest vineyards in Sancerre. "Les Romains" was planted sixty years ago by then patriarchs Denis and Jean-Louis on south facing, silex soils. It is not a wine trying to reinvent Sancerre, but to be an elevated version of the classic style.

FEATURED RIESLING TROCKEN

Keller, "Von der Fels", 2018 - $88

The G.O.A.T. - Michael Jordan, Muhammad Ali, Wayne Gretzky...there has always been discussion, no matter what the subject is, who is the greatest of all time? Sometimes its clear cut, sometimes arguements can be made. In the case of dry German Riesling, there is one house that stands above the rest, Weingut Keller. The estate has been in the hands of the Keller family since 1789, and Klaus Peter crafts some of the most breathtaking dry Rieslings in all of Germany, if not the world. They produce small amounts of wine from their holdings in the Rheinhessen, from some of the most famous sites including Morstein, Kirchspiel, Hubacker and Brunnenhauschen. Typically these sites are bottled individually in their Grosses Gewachs wines, but in this case the "Von der Fels" is blended from the younger vines from these amazing sites. This wine is referred to by many as a "Baby GG", and when experts like Jancis Robinson MW refer to the GG's as "the Montrachets of Germany", you know the juice in these bottles is going to be phenomenal.

FEATURED PINOT NOIR

Alexana, Eola-Amity Hills, 2013 - $88

Alexana Winery was born of Dr. Madaiah Revana's love of the great wines of Burgundy. In the spring of 2005, Dr. Revana began a search for both the ideal region and an experienced winemaker with the goal of producing Pinot Noirs that could rival those from Burgundy. His search ended in Oregon's Willamette Valley. He acquired an 80-acre property located in the Dundee Hills American Viticultural Area. Known for its distinct geography and diverse micro-climates, the Dundee Hills is one of the most widely recognized premium Pinot Noir producing AVAs in Oregon. Alexana wines are a reflection of Oregon's grape-growing climate and have become known for their elegance, balance and character. This cuvée is a blend of 2 famous vineyards in the Eola-Amity Hills AVA that is only available at the winery...until now.

FEATURED SYRAH

Pax, "The Hermit", North Coast, 2016 - $105

Pax is back! Pax Mahle started his eponymous brand in 2000 after years of working in the wine business. He created rich, full-bodied Syrahs from some of the best sites around California. In 2008, a rift in the partnership behind Pax Wine Cellars caused him to have to dissolve the brand for a short while, focusing his efforts on his new label, Wind Gap. The label change also brought a stylistic change in the wines to a more lean, restrained style. He re-launched the Pax brand in 2014, again showcasing Syrah from many of the best vineyard sites in northern California. "The Hermit" is made from 100% Syrah, with grapes sourced from all 5 of their Syrah vineyards.

FEATURED MERLOT BLEND

Andrew Will, "Ciel du Cheval", Red Mountain,
2014 - $138

Chris Camarda was Washington's original "Garagiste". He began his love affair with wine in the 80's, stemming from his many years in the restaurant industry, and he decided to launch Andrew Will in 1989. His first vintages were made in a 60 foot by 10 foot room in the Queen Anne neighborhood in Seattle, literally about the size of a garage. These days, he has moved operations to a larger facility on Vashon Island, and he's been especially keen on focusing on clonal selections that best fit the growing conditions in each particular vineyard. The Ciel du Cheval vineyard, planted in 1975 and one of the most prestigious in Washington, has been being used by Chris since his first vintage. He says, "I am not interested in the similarities of my wines, but the differences. The different identities of our vineyards and varietals, which explore the identity of Washington State as distinct from California or Bordeaux"

Domaine de Montille, "Les Grèves, 2015 - $124

Domaine de Montille is renowned as one of the finest domains in Burgundy. While the origin of the Domaine goes back to 1730, the modern history of the domaine started in 1947, when Hubert de Montille started to make the domaine's wines at the age of 17, due to the death of his father. In 1995, his son Etienne took over as co-manager of the Domaine. He moved the vineyards into organic farming, and in 2005 went biodynamic. This wine is sourced from their 1.26ha parcel, in arguably the best vineyard in Beaune, "Les Grèves".

FEATURED PRODUCER

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti

No winery is more famous, or produces such legen...wait for it...dary wines in Burgundy than Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. The domaine has been co-owned by 2 families, the de Villaine's and the Roch's/Leroy's, since 1942. Aubert de Villaine, a humble, charming and highly intelligent man who is acutely conscious of the history of the domaine and the responsibility he bears towards it, has been the manager and face of the domaine since 1991, when Lalou Bize-Leroy left to focus on her own domaine. Often abbreviated as DRC, the winery makes some of the most exclusive wines in the world. 98% of their vineyard holdings are in Grand Cru vineyards, including their 2 "monopoles", La Tâche and Romanée-Conti. DRC's wines, for those lucky enough to have tried them, are regarded as the pinnacle of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

FEATURED CÔTE-RÔTIE

Bernard Levet, "La Chavaroche", 2016 - $187

The story of this domaine begins in 1936, when Nicole Levet's grandfather first purchased vineyards in Ampuis. His wines were only sold to local bistros and cafes, and delivered in barrels. Then in 1966 Nicole's father, Marius Chambeyron, began bottling a small portion of the wine produced at the estate. Unfortunately, Nicole's father fell ill in 1982, and that next year Nicole's husband, Bernard Levet, took over winemaking and vineyard management duties. That precious 1983 vintage was when the domaine really began to develop. They have since increased their vineyard holdings, as well as expanded their cellar capacity. Although production is still small, they continue to produce some of the most rustic, classically-styled Côte-Rôtie in the market today.

FEATURED CROZES-HERMITAGE

Domaine Les Alexandrins, 2015 - $105

This is a project quarterbacked by none other than Nicolas Jaboulet. His recent success with Maison Nicolas Perrin has catapulted him to the forefront of the conversation. In 2012, the dream team was formed when he met the brilliant minds of Marc Sorrel and Alexandre Caso. Domaine Les Alexandrins was born. Using Syrah in soils and exposures more similiar to Hermitage than its sister appellation, the wine showcases a modern interpretation of the often overlooked Crozes-Hermitage. I'd say the rest is history, but with the pedigree involved here, its quite likely they will be making history in the near future!

Jean-Louis Chave

If there were a name that was synonymous with the hill of Hermitage, it would be that of Jean-Louis Chave. The family began making Hermitage in 1481, passing down wisdom through the generations to create some of the most perfectly balanced wines available. Traditionalists to the core, the key to the perfect balance of his wines is the remarkable blending skill. This creates wines of great nuance, harmony, depth and aging potential.

FEATURED SAUMUR

Domaine Guiberteau, 2018 - $77

Cabernet Franc...Sometimes a forgotten grape, in favor of it's more famous offspring, Cabernet Sauvignon. Well...in the Loire Valley they haven't forgotten. Romain Guiberteau, a flailing law student, decided to return home and reestablish his family's domaine in Saumur. He reclaimed his family's holdings, many on the famous hill of Brézé, and under the tutelage of Nady Foucault of Clos Rougeard, he began releasing wines that have quickly become some of the most sought after in the region. This bottling of 100% Cabernet Franc, aged in concrete tanks, truly shows off the purity of the daddy of Cabernets.

FEATURED BARBARESCO RISERVA

Piazzo, "Vigna Giaia", 2008 - $107

The story goes that when the Etruscans were chased out of central Italy to the North by the Romans, they eventually hid in the dense forests of Alba. The Romans knew vaguely where they were, but could never capture the fleeting tribe in the thick woods. Giving up the hunt the Romans would eventually name the region after the elusive Etruscans they thought to be barbarians: Barbaresco. The wines have always represented the most approachable form of the complex Nebbiolo grape, with softer tannins than their counterpart, Barolo, to the West. Wines from the region continue to benefit from age and only in the best vintages will they be declared Riserva. This ten year old wine epitomizes the vintage, age-worthiness, and Riserva status completely.

FEATURED BAROLO RISERVA

Franco Molino, "Rocche dell'Annunziata",
2012 - $138

Franco Molino is a winery, whose origins date back to the 1940's. Franco's grandfather, during one of his business trips, discovered the hills of the Langhe. He was so enthusiastic about the wonderful land he found, that he decided to move there. He came back with the whole family and he settled in the small village of La Morra, where he also bought the farmhouse Cascina Rocca, and several vineyards. Today, Silvana Molino, and her husband Piercarlo Bergadano, manage about 10 hectares of vineyards, including "Bricco Zuncai" and "Vigna Sarmassa" (Barolo), "Rocche dell'Annunziata" and "Bricco Rocca" (La Morra), and "Villero" (Castiglione Falletto). This Riserva bottling, from one of the most famous vineyards in La Morra, "Rocche dell'Annunziata", is a classic example of Barolo at its finest.

FEATURED CHIANTI CLASSICO GRAN SELEZIONE

Castello di Ama, "San Lorenzo", 2015 - $142

Too often Chianti Classico gets associated with the wicker baskets of bulk Chianti, or under-appreciated against the grandness of Brunello di Montalcino. Classico, located in the heart of Tuscany has been regarded as Sangiovese's ideal home since the 13th century. Marco Pallanti began his impressive tenure as winemaker at Castello di Ama in 1982. Despite the region's reputation for poor quality at the time, Pallanti saw the potential in these ancient rolling hills. After apprenticing at Château Mouton Rothschild in Bordeaux, he entirely redeveloped the estate vineyards and was among the first to experiment with international grape varieties. One of his most recent accomplishments as President of the Chianti Classico Consorzio was establishing the "Gran Selezione" classification. After all, who's to say there can't be "Grand Cru" Chianti?

FEATURED "SUPER TUSCAN"

Avignonesi, "Grifi", Toscana, 2015 - $88

In 1309, Pope Clement V transferred the papal residence from Rome to Avignon, France. In 1377, when Pope Gregory XI moved the papal residence back to Rome, some noble families of Avignon left France to follow him. It was at that time, in Italy, that one of those families became known as Avignonesi - probably to simplify an otherwise difficult, foreign name. In 1974, the Falvo brothers, owners of the vineyards in the municipality of Cortona, took over the Avignonesi estate and refounded it investing greatly in viticulture, selecting the local varieties and introducing classical ones. Its thanks in large part to Avignonesi that the DOCG Vino Nobile di Montepulciano gained fame in the 1980s. Although they are known for their Vino Nobile's, their "Super Tuscans" are pretty super as well. The "Grifi", which is a blend of Sangiovese from their I Pogetti estate in Montepulciano and Cabernet Sauvignon from their La Selva estate in Cortona, is a stellar example of Tuscan terroir.

FEATURED SICILIAN RED

Etna Rosso, I Custodi, "Ætneus", 2011 - $119

Etna is unlike any other wine producing region in the world. Most notoriously known as the home of Europe's highest active volcano Mount Etna, one would not consider this to be an ideal place to grow grapes--Dangerously steep rocky soils, unpredictable weather, the threat of volcanic eruption at any point? Very few are up for the challenge of making wine under such extreme circumstances. The work of these daring vintners with the region's indigenous Nerello Mascalese grape result in wines like "Ætneus": energetic fruit, smoky earth, with an elegant structure, making Etna Rosso the next big thing for Burgundy and Piedmont lovers...

FEATURED RIOJA RESERVA

López de Heredia, "Viña Tondonia", 2006- $112

There is an unarguably "old school" style of Rioja.

These wines are earthy, dusty, old and kick-ass.

There is no estate that embodies this style more than R. López de Heredia. With current releases being anything but current, the winery continues to produce classic, complex Rioja. This Reserva is from the famed Tondonia vineyard, and the great 2006 vintage. While the old iterations of Rioja are being replaced by modern interpretations, Lopez reminds us what it means to drink Rioja.

FEATURED ARGENTINEAN MALBEC

Luca, "Old Vine", Mendoza, 2016 - $84

There is no name more synonymous with Argentinean wine than that of the Catena family. Luca was founded in 1999 by Dr. Laura Catena, a fourth generation vintner, who joined her father's winery in 1995 after graduating magna cum laude from Harvard and earning her M.D. from Stanford. She shortly after, founded the Catena Institute of Wine, with the goal of carrying on her father, Nicolás' vision to put Argentine Malbec on the same level as the best wines in the world. Luca, named after her eldest son, was created in order to show off the greatness of Argentinean wines from rigorously farmed, high altitude, low yield vineyards. This Malbec is sourced from vineyard sites with an average vine age of over 50 years!!

Emperor Franz Josef sent Queen Victoria bottles religiously for her birthday. Louis XV referred to it as the "Wine of Kings". Beethoven, Peter the Great, and Thomas Jefferson preferred it to all other sweet wines. Don't you want to join this company of characters?*

FEATURED LANGHE MAGNUM

Gaja, "Costa Russi", 2009 - $1,954

Angelo Gaja is the man credited for catapulting the region of Piedmont into the spotlight. His influence has changed the way the world views Italian wine to this day. A master of Nebbiolo--the austere, tannic grape once considered only quaffable after decades of bottle age, Angelo saw its potential as a world class wine. Despite pushback from his peers, he employed new (and what most considered outlandish) practices both in the vineyard and the winery to promote freshness and elegance in his wine. The story of Gaja is a truly fascinating one, but is best told through a glass of his stunning Barbaresco...(hint, hint)
